

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

United States of America,

Case No. 20-cr-154 (WMW/TNL)

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

Robert Lawrence Stace,

Defendant.

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Robert Lawrence Stace's Motion for Continuance of Motion Hearing (ECF No. 32). Defendant has also filed a Speedy Trial Waiver (ECF No. 33) and a Statement of Facts in Support of Exclusion of Time Under the Speedy Trial Act (ECF No. 34). Defendant requests that the criminal motions hearing scheduled for December 10, 2020, be continued for 45 days, as he and his counsel need additional time to discuss a plea agreement provided by the Government, including the opportunity to speak via videoconference from the facility where he is detained. (ECF Nos. 32, 34.) Defendant requests that this time be excluded from the computation of time under the Speedy Trial Act. (ECF Nos. 32, 34.) The Government has not objected to Defendant's motion.

As previously stated (see ECF No. 29 at 1-2), beginning on March 13, 2020, and continuing thereafter, the Honorable John R. Tunheim, Chief District Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, has issued a series of General Orders in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, addressing, among other things, criminal proceedings and trials.¹ On November 24, 2020, Chief Judge Tunheim entered General Order No. 22, which continues all in-person hearings, unless the presiding judge determines that an in-person hearing is necessary, through January 31, 2021, and states that no new criminal trial may commence before February 1, 2021. See generally In re: Updated Guidance to Court Operations Under the Exigent Circumstances Created by COVID-19, Gen. Order No. 22 (D. Minn. Nov. 24, 2020).

General Order No. 22 continues to encourage the use of videoconferencing in criminal proceedings and states that, with the defendant's consent, criminal proceedings will be conducted by videoconferencing, or telephone conferencing if videoconferencing is not reasonably available.² General Order No. 22 further provides that, if the defendant declines to consent to proceeding by videoconferencing or telephone conferencing, the matter can be continued until an in-person hearing can be held and time may be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act. .

The Court inquired whether Defendant consented to conducting the criminal motions hearing using videoconferencing. (ECF Nos. 12, 23.) Defendant indicated through counsel that he consents to videoconferencing for the criminal motions hearing. (ECF No. 26.) Consistent with the health and safety protocols of this Court and the facility

¹ All General Orders related to the COVID-19 pandemic may be found on the Court's website at <https://www.mnd.uscourts.gov/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance>.

² See also General Order No. 19, which went into effect on September 26, 2020, and extends the Court's authorization to conduct certain criminal proceedings via video or telephone conference pursuant to the CARES Act "[b]ecause the emergency created by the COVID-19 outbreak continues to materially affect the functioning of court operations in the District of Minnesota." In re: Updated Guidance to Court Operations Under the Exigent Circumstances Created by COVID-19, Gen. Order No. 19 (D. Minn. Sept. 25, 2020).

in which Defendant is detained, the criminal motions hearing will be held by videoconference and continued to February 4, 2021.

Therefore, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h), this Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting such a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial and such continuance is necessary to provide Defendant and his attorney reasonable time necessary for effective preparation and to make efficient use of the parties' resources. Additionally, for the reasons addressed in General Order No. 22 and the well-documented concerns regarding COVID-19, the Court finds that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the ends of justice served by granting the continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial. The Court further finds that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(i), a miscarriage of justice would result if time were not excluded under these unique circumstances.
